On April 15, 2015, I, along with agents and officers from several law enforcement agencies, executed a federal search warrant at 611 South 19th Street #2, Omaha, Nebraska. During the search of the residence, agents/officers located approximately four pounds of cocaine, approximately twelve ounces of methamphetamine, approximately $30,000.00, cash, and one .40 caliber defaced handgun. Josue Gonzalez-Valdes and Oscar Cebreros-Tirado, both residents of 611 South 19th Street #2, were subsequently arrested.

During post-Miranda interviews, Gonzalez-Valdes admitted to ownership of the cocaine, the methamphetamine and the handgun. He also admitted to the distribution of cocaine.

During a post-Miranda interview, Cebreros-Tirado admitted to distributing cocaine in the Omaha metro area and knowing the handgun was in the residence.
